Rishabh does city proud

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ KANPUR

Rishabh Kumar Pandey did the city pride as he scored All India Rank 71 in the merit list of the Technical Entry Scheme for selection in Indian Army on Saturday. Out of 550 participants for the SSB exams held in Allahabad in February, only three were selected, including Rishabh of Kanpur, for the Indian Army.

After undergoing five years' training at the Officers Training School, Gaya, he would be given the rank of Lieutenant on Commission. Son of a retired Navy officer Sanjay Kumar Pandey, Rishabh did his schooling at the St. Aloysius Cantonment, and excelled in all the exams there. He is currently serving in the Indian Army.

A resident of Gandhi Nagar, Shuklaganj (Unnao), Rishabh credits his success to his parents, teachers and all well-wishers. He is accompanied by his brother Arun Misra, MM Mishra, KP Pandey, Bajrani Tiwari, and Bhaskar Pandey.

Workshop for educators ends

KANPUR: With the objective of teachers' empowerment, Sir Padampat Singhania Education Centre conducted ten days workshop for its educators on 'English Enrichment' in its premises which concluded on Friday. The Resource person, Soumya Rai, transversed the pedagogues on a prodigious odyssey. She spoke about the pivotal role communication plays in the life of educators and others. The workshop involved recreational and thought provoking brainstorming activities. Motivational videos were played to promote the educators on metacognition, a skill to enhance thinking ability and self-introspection. They were encouraged to remove their hesitation to speak English through various activities. Correct usage of grammar, syllable and stress and intonations were also imparted.
