Spl cover released on Gandhi's death anniv

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ KANPUR

On the 71st death anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, a special cover was released by the Philately department of the Head Post Office at Philately Hall on Wednesday. The chief guest on the occasion was Priyanka Gupta, Senior Superintendent, Post Office and the guest of honour was Manoj Mishra, Chief Post Master. A two-minute silence was observed in the hall to pay tribute to the Father of the Nation. Uma Tandon welcomed the chief guest with a batch. The programme started with the lighting of the lamp by the chief guest and the guest of honour.

Superintendent of Post Office, Priyanka Gupta and Chief Post Master, Manoj Mishra inaugurate the first day cover release on Wednesday

Priyanka Gupta said that Mahatma Gandhi lived a simple life with high thinking and when someone asked him what must be the message of his life, he told that his life in itself is a message.

She said that such must be the motto of our life. She added that Gandhiji criticised crime and sin. She said that people who earn their living without working is a crime. She told the gathering to lead a simple life and work hard.

She also pointed out that in a survey, India was ranked at 112th position out of 115 nations in the ranking by Happiness Quality Index.

She said that in order to regain the happiness we must follow the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi.

Manoj Mishra thanked everyone on the occasion especially the media persons for conveying the correct information to the public and hence helping in the smooth functioning of the post office.

The special cover (envelope) was released by the chief guest and the guest of honour.

Ranbir Singh, HS Lal, RS Sharma, Deepak Gupta, Shailendra Dixit and other major philatelist were present.
